Political Social Movie Opener VH-43560068: Cinematic intro titles using After Effects to create an opening for a social or political film or a sweeping trailer for a documentary that is reminiscent of investigative journalism. The tense, military atmosphere is perfect for themes that are connected to local or global demonstrations, activism as well as wars, terrorism, and corruption in the political system. News headlines from newspapers, materials from databases, articles written in type, and interviews assist in looking for and determining the truth through an investigation.
