What is Videohive Kinematic Intro 35852156?

Videohive Kinematic Intro 35852156 is a handy After Effects template for creating corporate intro sequences. The modular structure and looped animation make it versatile for various projects. The inclusion of a Local Color Control Panel is great for easy customization, allowing you to adapt the color scheme to fit your branding or preferences.

Having 16 pre-made sequences gives you a good starting point and flexibility in choosing the right intro for your video. The absence of plugins is also a plus, making it accessible to a wider audience without additional software requirements.

It's always nice when a template specifies the minimum total duration, in this case, 30 seconds, providing a clear idea of the expected duration for users.
