Blender Market - The City Generator v2.4:

The City Generator is a tool that allows users to quickly generate procedural cities with a simple user interface.

It offers a range of controls for creating city layouts, traffic simulations, night scenes, and procedural material adjustments.

The tool is demonstrated in a detailed video by Andreas Dürr, also known as Cinematic Cookie, a filmmaker and 3D artist with extensive experience in Blender.

Andreas has recently started sharing his expertise through YouTube tutorials, offering insights into his creative process.
