Toolroom Crusy Trademark Series (WAV): The new year’s Trademark Series with a new and promising talent Crusy who has already captivated the attention of numerous famous DJs through the release of a number of amazing productions.

It is noteworthy that "Selecta" was on repeat on dance floors around the world, establishing this emerging talent as one to watch for 2023. Collaboration on a track with Mark Knight on "Daddy Shhh" will further demonstrate his progression to become an artist. Amidst the top fascinating emerging artists of the last year, the artist from Bilbao has created a distinctive area within the Tech House world, combining Latin influences with the party-ready, energetic Toolroom music that everybody is familiar with.

The library includes a custom collection of studio-quality drum loops and innovative ideas such as bass and synth loops along with a wealth of EFX and one shots to use. With Crusy being on his path towards becoming an international household name we’re delighted to share his talents with you via the Trademark Series.
