We've been working with letters for a long time, and recently, we've seen an increase in demand for certain materials for people who wish to do lettering digitally. As an artist who works mostly on analog art We've spent a lot of our time making handmade materials analog in style, which can be worked digitally with Procreate with the iPad Pro and Apple Pencil. We've also looked at what works and what's not, and created our own brush sets. We have designed sets of brushes that are lettering tools, which allow you to create a flawless chance creating.
