How To Airbrush Black / White Portraits: "How To Airbrush Black / White" Portraits" is a simple-to-follow instructional guide for making an intermediate-level black and white image with an airbrush. The tutorial explains the entire process of creating an image based on the reference image supplied (used without permission.) The tutorial explains the entire painting process, including covers, materials needed, reference studies surface and preparation, toning the canvas painting highlights and shadows. It provides techniques and tips throughout the process. The tutorial was designed to give viewers an easy-to-follow method to create the painting, and it also explains the techniques employed to finish the painting. Since the painting is black and white, only a few materials are required, allowing anybody to complete this artwork.

The lesson was designed by Steve Nunez, a professional airbrush artist with over thirty years of experience. Steve's work is featured in various TV programs, books, and magazines, and he has won numerous art awards, museum exhibits, and gallery exhibitions.

Steve Nunez will be posting an entire series of airbrushed projects that will reveal all of his techniques, including "Airbrushing Full-Color Portraits," "Classic Black/White Airbrushed Portraits," Creating Airbrushed Wildlife Art," "Motorsports Artwork with the Airbrush," "Stylized Airbrushing" as well as a range of custom painting projects. This series aims to help artists using airbrushes get the results they want to attain in the least time possible, leaving more time to make art than to learn by trial and trial.
