Epic Stock Media – Sci-fi World Swarm: In addition to that, with the selection of 141 sci-fi loops designed by the composer you can create new worlds with ease. dramatic room tones, customized sci-fi scenes for exterior and interior ambient sounds such as an alien cavern, an energy laboratory termite mounds, transport hangars and Queen's chambers are ready to mix with, mix, stack and layer to create the perfect atmosphere in your music production.

Loops run around one minute long and the ambience loops contain one or two basic or alternative mix versions. In this way, you'll have the ability to create greater consistency throughout your production. For instance, if you feel that the standard version has too many things going on it's better to use the lesser version for an easier setting. The sounds are also mixed and enhanced to high volumes so that it is possible to mix the tracks to achieve the best immersion and sound quality without sacrificing fidelity.
