What is Fashion Collection LR Presets?

Fashion Collection LR Presets typically refers to a set of pre-defined editing settings for Adobe Lightroom, a popular photo editing software. These presets are designed specifically for fashion photography to help photographers achieve a consistent and stylish look in their photos.

Fashion Collection LR Presets can include various adjustments to aspects such as exposure, color balance, contrast, and sharpness. They are meant to save time and make the editing process more efficient by applying a particular style or aesthetic to a series of photos with a single click.
