Start Selling Your Art: In Person & Online: This is a 101-level class on taking your artwork and making it a profit online and at fairs and art shows in person. I will guide you through the steps below and offer suggestions on the platforms I work with, where I print my merch, and much more.

What you will learn:

- Step 1: Making art
- Step 2: Materials and information on printing, as well as packaging
- Step 3. How to sell online and from where
- Step 4: What do you sell at craft fairs and shows
- Step 5: Market your confidence
- Sixth Step: What can you do you adapt and improve to be better prepared for the future
- After the class, you'll feel confident enough to carry your stunninartworkrk (painting ceramics, paintings, appearance, el and so on.) and show it to potential customers.

I have no connection or affiliation with any sources I offer on the screen, and the resources I mention are the ones I have used and are intendeforto those who are just beginning their journey. Many more sources could be utilized by doing a little research and trial.
