Articulated Sounds – Winter Forest:

When the cold of the season resides on the earth and nature spreads its endless white blanket; days and nights never cease.

Articulated offers here an ambient audio library that is part of the series "Wonders of Nature which captures the captivating nature of winter's dormant forests. "Winter forest" is not solely about silence. It lets you experience the delicate flow of the lone nature. Over 2 years, we documented the northern woods forest in the Laurentian in Canada.
