Billboard In Night City is a visually striking template designed for social media channel advertising and other promotional purposes.

With two customizable versions, it offers flexibility to showcase content and snippets with accompanying soundtracks.

How do users design logos and social media ads in After Effects using templates?

They can use "Modern Slideshow" to design their project.

Users can personalize it with their logo, media, and color schemes, supported by comprehensive features like full-color controls and access to fonts. The template includes a video tutorial and is compatible with After Effects 2019 and newer versions.
