The plugin/Maxscript is used to generate Ivy's for 3D Max

The majority of add-ons available to max use either script or plugin. I decided to combine both for simplicity, and secondly, I hate opening an old application that utilized a plugin that is no longer in use. The combination of the two doesn't leave any trace; it just creates basic geometry.

The plugin performs all the hard work: the actual growing of ivy and the generation of meshes. The max script part is the user interface, materials, and the Corona scattering creation.

New Changes:

- Max 2022 Support
- Arnold Support for Max 2020 +

Forces Parameters

Primary Weight: Weight that is the main grow vector
