Hotel Promo (Videohive 38322046) - AE Project: After Effects, templates to design a beautiful gallery for real estate as well as an agency or real estate app as well as your real estate company as well as an office or hotel presentation. Highlight lifestyle aspects to advertising your home or office. Use it for a Youtube channel introduction, or as an advertisement for international travel or holiday service, opening a travel show broadcast or create memories of your travels.

This template can be used for your social media channels or for broadcast design on TV to create a vibrant and stylish video that features cool transitions and contemporary typography titles. We have augmented them with simple text animations, big fonts, and bold fonts. It is customizable with any typeface.

This program is easy to use: just change the text, then insert your media and then enjoy the outcome. It's a modular layout that allows you to easily modify the duration and order of the parts. The project comes in three variations: long, short, and black version.
