Mouse Cursor Transitions (Videohive 45636330): High-quality clear transition kit that can create smooth cinematic transitions using hand-drawn mouse cursors inside Davinci Resolve.

Change the pointer icon's color, size, and location, and use it in all directions to create an effortless slideshow or zoom. This flexible transition software is perfect for creating stunning slideshows, announcements, event promotions, corporate presentations, explanations, and travel or fashion videos.

It can be used alongside your images and titles to create an excellent introduction to the text that will surely attract your intended audience's attention. It can be used in free and studio versions for any length and even on Apple silicon.
