Liveclasses – Fashion: photographing a private client on a cyclorama: In this class, the focus is on capturing a private client in the realm of fashion aesthetics against a cyclorama backdrop. The subject is perpetually relevant, as clients often aspire to emulate the style of stars and supermodels featured in fashion magazines. While the challenge is considerable, it is equally intriguing, and we aim to guide you in navigating this terrain successfully.

Conducted as a collaborative effort with Diana Ageeva, a seasoned stylist specializing in image and stylization, the class is designed to shed light on current trends and fashion solutions that will resonate with your clients.

The primary objective is to seamlessly merge the aesthetics of fashion photography with the unique considerations involved in photographing private clients. The journey begins with creating a mood board, thoroughly exploring each look, assembling outfits, and capturing five distinct looks under varied lighting conditions.

As we delve into this class, you'll gain valuable insights into translating the allure of fashion magazines into personalized, stunning images for your clients. Join us as we embark on a visual journey, unraveling the intricacies of combining fashion aesthetics with the individuality of private clients.
