W.A Production Trivox v1.0.1-TCD: Introducing TriVox, the groundbreaking audio effects plugin by W. A. Production, designed to elevate your sound to unprecedented levels of harmonic creativity. Whether you're a producer, musician, or sound designer, TriVox is the ultimate tool for crafting captivating harmonies that mesmerize listeners.

TriVox boasts three harmony voices with precise tuning capabilities ranging from -12 to +12 semitones. Each voice is equipped with independent level controls, providing full command over the harmonious blend for achieving the perfect balance. Enhance your harmonies by locking them into one of 20 different scales or explore limitless possibilities in chromatic mode.

Take your sonic landscapes to new dimensions with the Super Unison feature, accompanied by the Detune and Spread settings. Craft expansive stereo soundscapes that envelop your audience. A slider allows you to toggle between synthetic and organic voices, enabling customization to match your artistic vision.

Fine-tune your mix effortlessly using the dry, wet, and output gain knobs, seamlessly blending the original sound with harmonies while preserving the mix's integrity. TriVox also enhances your creative workflow with convenient features like copy, paste, undo, and redo options, ensuring fearless experimentation with the ability to revert or replicate previous settings.

The global limiter maintains control over output levels, preventing unwanted clipping. Inject an element of surprise and uniqueness into your harmonies with the randomizer option, sparking inspiration and setting your productions apart.

Navigate presets effortlessly with the preset browser, auditioning and loading presets with ease. Use the A/B test option to compare different effect settings and fine-tune your harmonies until they shine.

TriVox offers a comprehensive PDF manual and tutorial video for unlocking its full potential. Enjoy responsive performance and CPU-friendly operation, seamlessly integrating into your workflow.

Join the league of real-life producers who trust W. A. Production for top-quality plugins that streamline the creative process. TriVox is your key to creating harmonies that inspire and captivate your audience. Immerse yourself in the realm of harmonic creativity and let your sound soar with TriVox.
