"But After Effects Scares me!"

I'm sure you've got this. I created Pixel_Encoder to be extremely user-friendly, so VFX novices can get started and create amazing animations in just a few minutes.

Pixel_Elements: Bringing Pixels to The People

Animation can be complicated. However... the good news is that it isn't required to be. This is the reason I designed Pixel_Elements.

With more than 30 drag and drag animations that you can choose from, you'll be more comfortable creating stunning visuals you'll love.

Get professional results even without professional footage

Pixel_Encoder uses the footage you've taken to build its own animations. This means that you can create studio-quality results no matter what camera you're using to shoot, even your phone.
