Energetic Urban Opener - AE Project VH-38730339: After Effects Template for creating a fashion-related event promotional video, fashion trailer, or a brand show of a new line. It can also be used to create a music video or YouTube opener. A dynamic design with active black and orange hues is great for broadcasting and social media design.

Make use of the fun typography to display words in the most imaginative way to highlight your message in a variety of fonts, from large letters taking up the entire screen, to tiny ones.

This program is simple to use: simply change the text, add your media, and revel in the final product. It's a modular layout that allows you to alter the duration as well as the order of the parts.
