Blender Market - Marker Manager:

Marker Manager is a Blender addon that enhances the functionality of the simple timeline markers, providing extended functions for higher business enterprise and management. It permits users to create, manipulate, and navigate markers efficiently, improving the overall timeline workflow. The add-on gives markers in a list format, considering better overview and control with capabilities like seeking, filtering, and tagging. It also supports uploading/exporting markers among exceptional Blend files, permitting easy transition across initiatives. Additional features include rendering specific frames at markers, and binding cameras to markers for brief setup, streamlining the creative method.

- Timeline Marker List View: Presents markers in a list form for higher overview and simpler management.
- Search & Filtering: Allows customers to find unique markers quickly with search and filter alternatives.
- Tagging System: Markers can be tagged for better agency and more straightforward retrieval.
- Import & Export Markers: Supports importing and exporting markers in a . Marker (JSON) file format, making it clear to transfer markers among distinctive Blend files or software programs.
- Render at Marker: Quickly preview frames at specific markers by rendering them with a single click.
- Bind Camera to Marker using Name: Automatically binds the camera to a marker if its call matches the digicam's name within the scene.
- Successor of Frame Ranger: Marker Manager is the up to date version of Frame Ranger and is now cut up into Action Commander, Chronos Timeline, and Marker Manager.
- Legacy Support for Frame Ranger: Frame Ranger has been deprecated but still gives a legacy guide for customers transitioning to brand-new addons.
