MotionArray Black And White Color Grades: Black and white Color Grades come with 20 LUTs that can be used in Adobe After Effects. You can use them to create your television and film projects and social media videos, presentation slideshows, presentations, and much more. The best part is that they're straightforward to use. Download the preset files or move and drag the LUT into your video to apply fantastic Color Grading. It works with any resolution. Films or social media post openers, documentaries, and photos look stylish and modern—no plugins are required.
