Soundtrack Loops Depth Charge Drum N' Bass: Soundtrack Loops presents "Depth Charge," a revival of the iconic drum 'n' bass genre that has never truly faded from the fringes of modern music. Drum 'n' bass was a prominent and propulsive genre of the early 2000s, and now it's making a comeback.

"Depth Charge" brings you 100 dark and futuristic cinematic drum 'n' bass loops, all at a brisk 172 BPM. This construction kit includes tight drum breaks, top-notch percussion loops, menacing basslines, spacey melodic synths, and atmospheric pads. Additionally, there are 20 one-shots covering impacts, bass drops, kicks, and snares, totaling 120 files. This collection pays homage to the core DNA of drum 'n' bass, making it a treat for producers who grew up with this genre.

While it retains its drum 'n' bass essence, "Depth Charge" also packs a sonic punch inspired by modern EDM production values. The sounds have been meticulously crafted using a blend of hardware and DSP synths, resulting in a perfect fusion of the classic and the contemporary. To ensure top-notch quality, the final products have undergone professional mastering by Soundtrack Loops.

Expert sound designer Colin Cameron, known for his work with Corrosive Machines and Cosmic Sea, has produced this drum 'n' bass renaissance pack. As with all Soundtrack Loops creations, you can expect precise tagging of Key and BPM in both metadata and file names.
