"Aescripts Depth Scanner" Samples:

This AI-based software automatically estimates depth for videos and images, requiring an Nvidia graphics card for the GPU edition. It creates depth maps for post-processing tasks like adding fog or converting footage into stereo-3D.

Key features include single-image prediction and consistent depth estimation across various scenes using advanced algorithms. The latest version offers improved temporal stability, bug fixes, a new "Accurate 2023" depth model, reduced flickering, better online activation grace periods, an improved sharpening algorithm, optional logging, and overall performance enhancements.
