Here is a Bit More concerning Remy:

"My name is Remy Brand, I am 25 and began picking up Photography once I was 20. I work as a Complete time industrial photographer in Sydney, however, my heart will always lie with landscape/lifestyle/adventure Photography.

I've got an eclectic taste when it comes to design but When I was to specify it, I'd say it is rather natural and filmy. Launched In my time in the Pacific northwest generated a variety of darker, Moodier presets that actually fit with the earthy tones and muddy weather it's Called for.

Another presets reflect my present change in fashion to Something a bit more natural and vibrant. These presets generally have less Fade and are more regarding the colors and distribute the various colors within a Picture"
