Creating Artificial Shadows In Photoshop: In this live class, Karl shows how to make realistic-looking artificial shadows with Photoshop.

Karl walks you through making a shadow around the product, demonstrating how to make choices quickly, create glows or halos around an object, and apply multiple layers to achieve the best results.

To conclude the show, Karl also shows a second, faster method of creating artificial shadows that could be useful for people who aren't experienced with Photoshop. In addition, Karl also shares tips for creating shadows on different transparent objects and colored objects throughout the show.

The topics discussed in this show include:

- Making shadows in Photoshop
- Understanding shadows
- How to create selections and cutouts
- Layers and masks are used to create layers.
- Shadows to create different colors of objects
- How do you change the background color?
- Tips for creating shadows on transparent objects
