Procreate has 98 brushes that I created myself. This is a set of brushes I've been making for a long time and is designed to serve as an assortment that allows you to make a variety of various art pieces using. This set contains brushes that can be used for drawing, sketching lines, shading, adding patterns and texture, etc. It's ideal for digital art if you'd like to add texture patterns, patterns, and plenty of interest.

The pattern brushes are all made of repeated patterns created by me. A majority of textures feature the grain made by me, and therefore they are exclusive to this collection.
