DETAILED, ISOLATED, AND METEOROLOGICAL Elements FLEXIBLE

This collection contains everything you require to make an ideal storm. It includes 22 separate thunder recordings, which include near strikes, echoing peels, and distant rolls. It also includes 35 distinct rain intensities plus nine recorded storms. There's an entire, one-hour-long rainstorm (61 minutes.) and a complete thunderstorm (41 minutes.) for quick access to the right sound in the time you need it. The rain and thunder files are available on "The Nature Essentials" Collection.

GET THE SURROUNDING EXPERIENCE

Surround-sound ambiances are the best way to experience nature's natural sound. They are also the most vivid and authentic sound. If you're given the chance to fully explore their audio potential, these stunning 5.0 surround sound recordings stop you from accepting lower in the near future.
