Digital Holographic Intro (Videohive 10453635): After Effects template at a high tech fashion for developing a broadcast intro to get a news station quickly and simple. Create a photograph or movie gallery together with the principal news of this day that doesn't need an anchor from the shooter.

The job resembles a huge picture or movie wall using gleaming holographic surfaces to make a lively news atmosphere. It comprises HUD components to produce the look more futuristic as well as the information -- to seem worldwide and business-like.

Pick any of both variations: red or blue, to suit your own branding colors or the information surroundings of their day.
