SFXTools Water Splashes (WAV): "Water Splashes" from SFXTools includes 75 high-quality, designed sound effects that are ready to splash in your work! It is perfect for any project that has to do with water, be it games, commercials, or TV/film scores.

The library contains many splashes SFX and also comes with some processed sounds to sweeten the sound to assist you in matching the appropriate sound of water splashes in a particular scene like reversed, slo-mo underwater, etc. You can easily add these sounds to your slo-mo video or instant rewind shots, or anything else you require. Each sound included in the folder has been meticulously created and is delivered in industry standard 24bit/96kHz, which guarantees the best quality cinematic production today.

The library is well-suited to post-production movie audio, games documentaries, commercials, or any other film-related projects that require high-definition recordings from the source.
