SFXTools Water Splashes: The library is well-suited to post-production movie audio, games documentaries, advertising, or any other film-related projects that require high-definition recordings from the source.

We are pleased to announce "Water Splashes," featuring 75 high-quality sound effects designed to be high-end and ready to be sprayed in your work! Ideal for everything related to water, no matter the game, commercials, TV, and film music.

The library includes an array of splashes SFX. Also, it comes with a few FXed sounds that can be used as sweeteners to assist you in matching the correct sound of a splash in a specific scene, including reversed, slomo underwater, etc. You can easily add the sounds to your slow-motion videos, instant rewind videos, or anything else you require. Each sound in the folder is carefully designed and delivered in industry-standard 24bit/96kHz, guaranteeing the highest quality to meet modern cinematic production requirements.

Keywords and sounds included:

Water, Liquid, Splashes, Bubbles, Motion, Film Audio, SFX, Designed Sounds, Game Audio
