Online Educational Course Promo Vertical Reels is a green-themed After Effects template designed for social media platforms like Instagram and vertical video content. It helps educators, schools, and training programs promote online courses, academic events, and training sessions with captivating animations and a professional look.

The template is easy to customize, allowing users to edit text, colors, and logos for brand consistency. It features smooth transitions, attention-grabbing text placement, and placeholders for educational photos or videos, making it suitable for independent educators, institutions, or e-learning professionals.

Optimized for high-quality vertical output, this template highlights courses, open enrollments, workshops, and more. It includes a detailed PDF tutorial, requires no plugins, and saves time with its user-friendly design. The green color scheme enhances its educational and eco-friendly appeal, while its versatility suits both YouTube and video blogs, delivering polished educational advertisements and presentations effectively.
