This bundle includes the layer-based PSD file that contains the 42 layers of gradient maps, an example image, and an unnumbered preview image that allows you to pick your preferred effect quickly.

- Note that these aren't authentic duotones using spots but instead make use of adjustment layers to achieve the exact look.

What is 42 Duotone Effect Gradient Maps - CreativeMarket 2017069?

This CreativeMarket package offers 42 duotone effect gradient maps. In simpler terms, a gradient map is a way to map the colors in an image to a gradient. The duotone effect typically involves using two colors in the gradient map, creating a stylish and harmonious color palette.

These gradient maps can be applied to your photos in various editing software, likely including Photoshop. The versatility of having 42 different maps means you have a wide range of creative options. Each map can give a different mood or style to your photos—whether you want a vintage vibe, a modern look, or something bold and experimental.
